

Join VWT in Ireland!

Vincent Wildlife Trust is a charity that is highly respected as a leader in developing and implementing Conservation solutions that halt and reverse declines in threatened mammal species in Britain, Ireland and mainland Europe.

VWT is seeking a suitable person to become its Ireland Mammal Programme Manager to continue its work to develop and deliver evidence-based conservation interventions to support the recovery of mammal species. We work closely with universities, co-funding and supervising PhD projects, and with partner NGOs where synergies in our aims allow us to deliver over and above what we could achieve on our own.

The ideal candidate will have experience of successful conservation delivery, working in the field as well as proven experience of leading projects and programmes from initial conception through to successful delivery and evaluation. Salary: Grade 4 – €59,500–€63,465.

The role is home based in Ireland. Visit www.vincentwildlife.ie for a Job Pack.

Deadline for applications – 5pm on Fri 3 July 2026 by email to hazel.highfield@vwt.org.uk or by post to: Vincent Wildlife Trust, 3-4 Bronsil Courtyard, Eastnor, Ledbury, HR8 1EP.
